

THE GRATEFUL BUNNY

Bella was a little white bunny who lived in a cozy meadow. She loved to hop and nibble on fresh green clovers.

One sunny morning, Bella found a basket of juicy carrots near her burrow. She didn't know who left them, but she felt very happy. Bella hopped to her friend, a wise old owl, and said, "Thank you to whoever shared these carrots!"

Bella decided to share the carrots with her friends in the meadow. Everyone felt happy, and Bella felt even happier because she was grateful and kind.
