Lily's Kite

One sunny afternoon, a little girl named Lily went to the park with her father. She brought her new, red kite. The kite was a gift for her birthday. Lily was filled with so much excitement!

Suddenly, a strong wind blew the kite away! Oh no! Lily started to feel sadness. A kind policeman saw her and pointed to a big tree. High up in the tree, a little cat was playing with the kite. The policeman helped her get the kite back.

Lily hugged her father and her kite. She thanked the policeman and the little cat. She felt so much happiness again. It was a wonderful adventure!
