JAPAN TRIP

Jacky and Nick went to Japan last week. It was their first time and they were looking for places in Tokyo. At the airport, they were given a map. They saw the tourist spots and places they could eat. The city was big and they were scared that they might get lost.

It was good that their hotel is next to the restaurant. They ate their lunch. Jacky ate sushi while Nick ate noodles. After eating, they went to the bank to change their Thai baht to Japanese yen. When they get their money, they stopped at an ice cream shop and went back to their hotel.
